Buildings - Government - Bellary Collector's office - Rearrangement proposal.

Reference:- B.P. Mis. 1090 dated 29-3-1928.

In G.O. No. 663 M. Revenue dated 26-3-1928 the Government have approved my proposals regarding the provision of accommodation for certain Government offices in the Collectorate buildings. At the time of the inspection of the buildings by the Board Member, the Revenue Divisional Officer, Bellary represented to me that he might be allowed to remain in his present buildings, as he did not desire for a change. This will also effect savings of the amount that would have been required for transfering the furniture records etc. The Board Member when being told of possible alterations to the arrangements resulting therefrom said orally that the Collector might use his discretion as to the actual distribution finally decided upon. I have therefore decided to retain the Revenue Divisional Officer's office in the existing building and to allot the building now occupied by the District Board Engineer's office to the 1st class Bench Court and the Inspecting Tahsildar's office after effecting the necessary improvements.

The proposal involves the shifting of Taluk the Dy. B.E.S. office now located in the Collectors office, and the P.W.D. has already expressed vide A' c. p.b.f. S What is the Inspecting Tahsildar's office? I did understand that he had an office of his own. I thought that like the Huzur Sheristadar he was part of the Collector's establishment.

Please see Secy's query above.

2. The Inspecting Tahr. is a member of the Collr's estt. and remains responsible to the Collr for all work connected with Revenue Records and Registration. The L.R. Clerk in the Collr's office as far as Rev. Records & Registration work is concerned, the Ld. Dy Surveyor and the L.R. Draftsman work under the Inspecting Tahr. vide para 1 of the instructions contained in the annexure to Go. 1732 Rev. dt 7.11.25. From this it is clear that there is no independent office for the Inspecting Tahsildar and it is presumed that the proposal of the Collr. to provide separate accommodation for the

Inspecting Tahsil Office is merely for ~~the sake of convenience and will be obvious~~ because there is not enough room for him in the Collector's office

DDV 20.6.28

Then the correct expression is "the Inspecting Tahsildar" that section of the Collector's office which works under his supervision.
